

THAILAND 2017

Always dreamed of visiting and training in Thailand?
We can make your dream come true!

This event is more than just a training holiday - it's a chance to indulge your senses in the amazingly contrasting sights and sounds of the magical kingdom of Thailand!

The Tour will depart from Manchester during the last week of April .

The first step of the journey will be 3 days in bustling Bangkok.

The tour will then move on for 4 days in Ayutthaya the ancient city and historical capital training either at the Buddhai Swan Institute (Krabi Krabong) or the Sit-Palang camp (Muay Thai).

The tour will then continue on for two days down to Pattaya the Riviera of the East for training at the famous Sityodthong Camp.

Finally it's south to the elegant resort of Hua Hin where training takes place in the late afternoon which gives you the full day to explore paradise!

The tour will then return to Bangkok for one night before departing homeward bound.

Cost for the two weeks tour is just £975 per person, which includes flight and hotels.

Please fill in and return the booking form with your deposit ASAP to guarantee your trip of a lifetime.

